For sale is a building plot in a quiet location, situated on the outskirts of a smaller settlement near Poreč. The land is only 8 km from Poreč and the sea, providing a balance between a natural environment and proximity to urban services.

The plot is rectangular in shape, with an area of 1019 m2, oriented to the southwest, ensuring excellent sunlight and a beautiful view of nature. It is ideal for building a villa or a semi-detached house.

Nearby, there is utility infrastructure (electricity and water), which greatly facilitates the construction process. The land is part of a larger land complex, with the possibility of purchasing additional plots of similar size.

The nearest place with basic amenities, such as shops, schools, kindergartens, and restaurants, is 4 km away, offering quick access to everything needed for daily life.

This location offers exceptional peace and privacy, while still being in close proximity to all essential services.
